

Symposium 3: Periprosthetic Joint Infection

Friday, May 13, 2022, 1:10 PM – 2:10 PM

Moderator: Bryan D. Springer, MDFaculty: Javad Parvizi, MD, FRCS, Muyibat A. Adelani, MD, Gwo-Chin Lee, MD and Lucian C. Warth, MD

Course Description: This symposium will provide the latest information the contemporary management of periprosthetic joint infection (PJI) including diagnosis and various treatment options in 2023. We will discuss the latest literature, trends and outcomes with didactic and audience questions.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand how to appropriately diagnose PJI.
- Evaluate the current role and outcomes of DAIR for PJI.
- Understand the indications and technical aspects of single-stage and two-stage exchange arthroplasty for PJI.
- Learn and understand treatment options for the failed two-stage exchange.

Agenda:

1. Introduction
Bryan D. Springer, MD
2. The Diagnosis of PJI: What Are My Options and What to Use
Javad Parvizi, MD, FRCS
3. The Role of DAIR Procedure: Who, When and How?
Muyibat A. Adelani, MD
4. The Two-stage Exchange Remains the Gold Standard
Gwo-Chin Lee, MD
5. Single-stage Exchange: When and How?
Bryan D. Springer, MD
6. The Failed Two-stage Exchange: Now What?
Lucian C. Warth, MD
7. Case Discussion, Questions & Answers
Moderator and All Faculty

